CISCOE MORRIS

Ciscoe, a native of Wisconsin, has been a Seattle resident since the early 70's and 24 years the Grounds Manager at Seattle University. Now he spends most of his time doing his weekly radio show, two TV spots each week and speaking throughout the region. He is known for his sense of humor, practical gardening advice, and love of Brussel Sprouts.....Ooh La La.

Ciscoe will be speaking on getting your garden ready for spring, and of course, accepting questions from the audience. Stump him and receive a free Brussel Sprout.
